

Dear Boys and Girls,

I flew to New-York for a creepy week-end !

In the streets, I can see black bats, white ghosts, ugly witches, noisy skeletons, red vampires and scary monsters.

Everybody knocks at the doors and asks « Trick or treat ? ».

In front of the windows, people put Jack O' lanterns with candles in them. It's all orange and black ! It's beautiful !

I've got a monster mask !

And you, do you dress up and ask « Trick or treat » ?

Goodbye !
